

Section B - Writing

You should spend about 30 minutes on this section. Continue the story, describing what happened to the narrator next. Write at least two more paragraphs. You do not have to finish the story. Try to include some interesting details and descriptions in your writing.

You may like to think about:

- What will the narrator do next?
- What will Count Dracula do next?
- How will you show the characters' thoughts and feelings?
